

For immediate release

New book of survivor's testimonies to benefit SURF partner

(London – 23 January 2009) Fifteen years after the Rwandan genocide, The Men Who Killed Me features testimonies from seventeen survivors. Through their narratives and portraits, sixteen women and one man bear witness to the crimes committed against hundreds of thousands of others.

Proceeds from this book will go to Mukomeze, a charitable organisation established to improve the lives of girls and women who survived sexual violence in the Rwandan genocide through SURF partner, Solace Ministries.

The book is published in April 2009, and available through Amazon Canada.

For more information, visit: <http://www.menwhokilledme.com>.

- END -